

Can I use an irrigation system in my garden or allotment?

Yes, provided it is an approved drip or trickle irrigation system.

The system must:

- Have a pressure-reducing valve
- Use a timer that is not handheld
- Deliver water directly onto or beneath the soil
- Avoid surface run-off
- Not spray water through the air as a jet or mist

Source:

Thames Water, Affinity Water South East Water and Southern Water

